INTRODUCTION TO AQAA'ID

Our faith is based on the unseen, as taught to us by Nabee Muhammad ﷺ. We can only be true Muslims if our beliefs are in accordance with the teachings of Nabee Muhammad ﷺ.

Nabee ﷺ was once asked to explain faith. He replied:

"To believe in Allaah ﷺ, His angels, His books, His messengers, the Last Day, and to believe in the good and bad (that unfolds) according to taqdeer."
(Muslim)

We neither question the unseen nor doubt his teachings. Our belief also requires absolute love and submission to the commands of Nabee ﷺ who stated that:

"None of you (truly) believes until I become more beloved to him than his father, his son and the rest of mankind." (Bukhaaree & Muslim).

"He who bears witness that there is no object of worship except Allaah ﷺ and Muhammad - is the messenger of Allaah ﷺ, Allaah ﷺ has made the fire forbidden for him." (Muslim).

The key to the doors of paradise is belief. If our beliefs are incorrect or incomplete, then though we may perform the deeds of a Muslim, look like a Muslim and even have a Muslim name, we will not be judged as such by Allaah ﷺ. All our deeds will be ruined and we shall face eternal loss.

Nabee ﷺ has said:

"The Banoo Israa'eel broke up into seventy two sects, while my ummah will break up into seventy three sects. All of them will be in the fire except one group. They (the companions) asked: "who will they be, O Messenger of Allaah?" He replied: "(The group whose beliefs are in accordance with my companions and I. (Tirmizee)

This belief system is known as "Aqaa'id". Our Aqaa'id will protect us from falling into one of the seventy-two sects and will Insha Allaah secure our place in Jannah.

Lesson one - The Creator الخالق

This world and everything in it was created by Allaah ﷺ. The huge mountains, the beautiful flowers, and the shining stars are some of the signs that show us the greatness, beauty, and power of Allaah ﷺ. A Muslim was once asked about Allaah ﷺ. He replied: "A house requires a builder, our clothes require a maker and bread requires a baker. In the same way, the heavens, the earth, and seas require a Creator, who is Allaah ﷺ. Allaah ﷺ was not created, but He is the Creator of all things."

Story one

The Creator of the worlds

Nabee Ibraaheem عليه السلام said to his father and his people, "What do you worship?"
They said, "We worship idols."

He said, "Do they listen to you when you call on them? Do they do you any good or harm?" They said, "No, but we found our fathers doing so."

He said, "The things that you worship are my enemies. I worship the Creator of the Worlds. He created me and He guides me. He gives me food and drink. And when I am ill, He who cures me.

The sword fell from the hand of the enemy. Nabee Muhammad ﷺ picked up the sword and asked him, "Now who will help you?" He begged for mercy. Nabee Muhammad ﷺ forgave him. They taught their followers that all people are equal. The rich, the poor, the black and the white are all children of Adam ﷺ. Their teachings helped people to love and respect each other. They were human beings who performed many miracles with the permission of Allaah. The enemies of Allaah ﷺ laughed at them and punished them for calling people to Allaah ﷺ. Those who obeyed their Prophets had to make many sacrifices.

Note to Muallim/ah

This book comes with eight sets of flash cards and the suggestions for the teaching of one lesson.

Period 1:

Before beginning the New Year's work revise the previous years attributes of Allaah ﷺ that were learnt. Now go on to teach the first lesson, i.e The Creator (Al-khaliq) by posing questions to the children. The Muallim/ah should bring along a fruit/s and a vegetable (ie things children are familiar with) and ask them some questions like:

- ◆ Who made this apple/orange.
- ◆ Who made all the fruit?
- ◆ Who made all the vegetables?
- ◆ Who made all the milk we drink?
- ◆ Can you make any of these things?
- ◆ Can anyone else make these things?
- ◆ Who do you think made all these?

All the questions should provide us with the answer that Allaah ﷺ is the Creator of all things.

Period two:

Revision of the previous periods work. Extend the lesson by now asking the children about the earth, sun moon, stars, sky.

- ◆ Who made the earth?
- ◆ Who made the sky?etc.

Familiarize the children with the words of nature such as mountains, river, oceans, trees, animals and human being themselves. Familiarize them with the Creator of all this.

Introduce the flash cards as the lesson progress. Now go on to the story of Nabee Ebrahim ﷺ.

The stories are told to the children to emphasize the attributes being taught and to help the children fully understand this attribute.

Period 3:

Repeat the story of Ebrahim ﷺ and now question the pupils to bring home the following:

- ◆ Allaah ﷺ and Allaah ﷺ alone made all things.
- ◆ Allaah ﷺ is very kind to us.
- ◆ Allaah ﷺ is the creator of all things.
- ◆ Thus Allaah ﷺ is called "Al-khaliq, the creator.

Pupil activity:

Colour in the words: Al-khaliq - The Creator During the period one or two ask the children to bring different leaves, flowers etc to the class to show and discuss with the others. The Muallim/ah should point out how wonderfully these are made. These are examples of the beauty of Allaah's ﷺ creation.

Nabee Muhammad ﷺ came as a final messenger of Allaah ﷺ. He came to complete the message of the previous prophets. Nabee Muhammad ﷺ was not sent to a particular community. He was sent as a Prophet to all mankind. He was very handsome, humble and caring. Nabee ﷺ said "I am the leader of all the Prophets, (I say this) without any pride, and I am the Seal of all prophets (and I say this) without any pride. I shall be the first intercessor and the first of those whose intercession shall be accepted, (I say this) without any pride. (Daaramee)

Allaah ﷺ created human beings from sand, the Jinn from fire and the Angels from light. Angels are a special creation of Allaah ﷺ who carry out various duties according to His command. Some of their duties are:

- ◆ To record the deeds of every human being
- ◆ To cause the death of a person
- ◆ To question those in the grave
- ◆ To bring wahyy (revelation) to the Ambiyaa
- ◆ To send salawaat on Nabee Muhammad ﷺ

The angel Jibra'eel conveyed the message of Allaah Ta'aala to the Prophets. Some 'Ambyyaa received the message of Allaah ﷺ in the form of books (kutub). These Books contained the laws of Allaah ﷺ. They were meant for certain communities only. The final Book of Allaah ﷺ is the Qur'aan. The Qur'aan was sent for the whole of mankind upto the Day of Judgement. The Qur'aan is protected by Allaah ﷺ. No one can change the words of the Qur'aan.
